

Fair Housing:

Reasonable Accommodations & Reasonable Modifications

Whether someone needs to install a ramp, have a parking space reserved, or have an emotional support animal, this two-hour remote training by Silver State Fair Housing Council provides valuable information about the right of individuals with disabilities to reasonably modify a property or request that usual policies be waived to allow full use and enjoyment of their housing.

Thursday, June 18, 2026
10am-Noon

Training will be conducted via zoom

For better engagement we encourage trainees to have their cameras on, if available.

REGISTRATION REQUIRED—CONTACT SSFHC:

702.749.3288 | toll- free 888.585.8634 | Relay Nevada 711 | fairhousing@ssfhc.org

Training policies

Participants must attend the entire training and complete a training evaluation in order to receive a training certificate. We are pleased to provide reasonable accommodations requested by people with disabilities who wish to attend the training. Contact us at 888.585.8634 / Relay Nevada 711 by Monday, June 8, 2026 to request reasonable accommodations.